June 15 Bad Penny Band – in partnership with Middlebourne’s Bands on Broad Series, with partial funding from the Stealey Community Fund.

Food @5, music @6

This powerful duo takes a unique approach to many well-known songs as well as a selection of their own songs, mainly consisting of classic rock, folk rock, oldies, and bluegrass. The band has been active for about 3 years.

June 29 Gary Eller at ArtsLink on the lawn 7:00
Refreshments sponsored by West Virginia Northern Community College.

Gary Eller grew up in West Virginia, where ballads about train wrecks and hangings and floods were written and sung at the drop of a hat. Eller has issued an 80-page interpretive booklet and CD with 22 audio tracks of historically-based songs, poems and stories about Wetzel County and adjacent areas ranging from the days of Lewis Wetzel in the late 1700s to an autobiographical song written in the 1990s by Knob Fork’s Pansy Yoho, who has been singing her heartfelt ballads for over 70 years.

July 13 Rodney Sands at ArtsLink on the lawn 7:00

Rodney Sands started playing guitar and singing at the age of 12 in 1962. He has played with many local bands, and has also have had the privilege of playing with the Ebert Brothers, Kitty Wells, Kenny Biggs, and many more in the Eastern US area. He has been active throughout his 54 years of singing, doing benefits and will continue till the Good Lord Calls Me Home.

August 3 Johnny Joe Mensore
at the Lincoln Theater 7:00

Mensore has been a generous supporter of ArtsLink since its inception by sharing his vocal talents annually at various ArtsLink concerts. He has performed at numerous venues in recent years, including churches, Rotary Conferences, Ebert Brothers concerts, and local fairs and celebrations.
